MRS. DE WITT'S SLAYER DIES IN CHAIR

New Steps Taken In Battle To End Recession

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representatives of both the legislative and executive branches of the government have taken new steps in the battle to end the current recession. Twin antirecession actions by the Federal Reserve Board emerged as House Democrats pushed forward a $1 billion emergency program of help for the jobless. The Democratic program goes far beyond a $600 million plan President Eisenhower has proposed in this field.

Meanwhile, rival party leaders in the Senate argued over whether the Eisenhower administration is being vigorous enough in fighting the economic slump. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) decided "a policy of letting things ride." But Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said Eisenhower has taken effective steps while cooperating with Congress in other antirecession moves.

For the fourth time in five months, the Federal Reserve Board reduced the interest charged member banks borrowing from reserve banks.

THE ACTION, cutting the rate from 2 1/4 per cent to 1 3/4 per cent, is effective today in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and Minneapolis. The seven other Federal Reserve districts are expected to follow suit later.

Democrats today are pushing an emergency unemployment relief program to provide 16 weeks of added jobless pay benefits for most of the nation's idled workers. The plan, to remain in effect until June 30, 1959, would be financed wholly by the U. S. Treasury. It would apply both to workers now covered by existing state unemployment programs and to many not now eligible, but proposed rules concerning the latter have not been decided.

The Democratic-approved program represented a compromise of proposals put forth by Eisenhower and those sponsored by Chairman Mills (D-Ark.) of the Ways and Means Committee.

It calls for:

1. Sixteen weeks of added benefits for insured workers who have exhausted compensation rights under state programs.
2. The same number of weeks of benefits for noncovered workers who are not eligible for state benefits.
3. Payments to be financed by the federal government in conformity with the existing level of benefits now provided under state programs with no change in state standards.

IN ANOTHER move aimed at making more money available for lending, the Federal Reserve Board reduced the amount of reserves which certain banks must maintain against demand deposits.

Effective Thursday, the reserve requirement at central reserve city banks in New York and Chicago was dropped from 19 per cent to 18 1/2 per cent. Next Thursday, it will go down another half of 1 per cent.

Also next Thursday, the reserve requirement will be trimmed from 17 per cent to 16 1/2 per cent in reserve city banks, located in most other large cities. Country reserve banks were not affected.

There were these other developments bearing on the economic situation:

1. Government experts anticipated that new figures due out next week will show that the cost of living hit another record high in March, due to advancing food prices.
2. Following up Eisenhower's signing of a highway speedup bill, the Commerce Department made available to the states an extra $600 million for such work. The new outlays are over and above $2.8 billion previously apportioned for the fiscal year starting July 1.

YOUNGSTOWN (AP)—The Mahoning County grand jury today indicted John J. Tobin Jr. and 14 others in an insurance swindle which amounted to about a quarter of a million dollars.

Tobin was the insurance agent who admitted falsifying claims, with the help of a business partner, Paul Shade.

With Shade as his campaign manager, he had won election to city council. He was to have been sworn in the first week in January, but about that time he feared exposure and both fled town. Tobin was captured in Houston, Tex., and Shade in a motel at Vandalia, near Dayton.

Two attorneys, a physician and the head of a printing company were among the persons named in the total of 53 indictments. They are charged with helping Tobin falsify material presented as insurance claims.

There were 16 counts of embezzlement and two of issuing bad

New Holland Bridge Replacement Promised

Word of a State Highway Department project to replace the old North Fork bridge on Paint Creek, Route 22 a mile west of New Holland, was brought back Thursday by three Washington C. H. men who visited the Highway Department's district engineer in Delaware.

Chamber of Commerce President Walter Morrow, Manager William Stoughton, and City Council President Ben F. Norris discussed various highway construction and repair projects with Sixth Division Engineer Frank Williams and N. B. Richey, location and design consultant.

UAW's 'False' Claim Costs $400,000

DETROIT (AP)—A jury has awarded Detroit scrap dealer Carl Renda a $400,000 damage verdict against the United Auto Workers and four of its aides.

The jury returned its verdict Thursday in Renda's damage suit charging malicious prosecution in the 1948 shooting of UAW President Walter P. Reuther. Renda had demanded $4 1/2 million.

One of the defendants, Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer, said the union would appeal.

Renda charged the union sought to pin the Reuther shooting on him by paying Donald Ritchie, Windsor, Ont., $5,000 to testify against him.

Renda was one of four men named in a warrant four years ago charging them with conspiracy to shoot Reuther. The warrant was dropped after Ritchie repudiated his story.

The verdict was against the union; Mazey; Harold Crane, UAW legal counsel; Jack T. Conway, Reuther's administrative assistant; and Samuel J. Henderson, a union detective.

Reuther's right arm was shattered by a shotgun blast fired through a window of his home here the night of April 20, 1948.

checks against Tobin. The check charges were based on checks he issued before leaving Youngstown. The money losses charged to Tobin amounted to $150,136. Prosecutor Thomas A. Bell said that for lack of available evidence other embezzlement charges were dropped. He estimated the total would have been about $100,000 higher.

Shade was named in nine counts involving many of the same claims at Tobin. The loss involved was $119,013.

The largest false claim involved $56,231 and many of the figures in the case were connected with this claim. They included Allen J. Swaim, an attorney who is accused of helping with legal details; Dr. James W. Barnes Jr., 29, accused of helping with medical language and information; and William Glaros, 44, head of a printing company, accused of faking a tear sheet from a newspaper so that false references could be made to an accident.

Ohio's Highway Aid Share: $24 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio will get $24,397,246 from a bill signed Wednesday by President Eisenhower which sets aside $600 million for federal aid highway money.

that a program to widen the east and west approaches to the bridge site, to cut down small hills at each approach, and to raise the level of the new bridge about eight feet, has been put on the books for the "very near future." Bids should be let in August or early September, it was disclosed.

About 75 per cent of the planning for the project is completed, Ritchie told the Washington C. H. group. The present narrow span has been the site of many auto accidents in recent years.

TWO PROJECTS in Washington C. H. which would fit into a new federal government program of secondary repair projects in Ohio were taken under consideration by the highway officials after presentation by the Washington C. H. men.

One would widen Highland Ave. from the present 'Y' intersection to Elm St. The other would widen S. Fayette St. from Elm St. to a point beyond the Armo property.

These improvements were proposed as likely parts of a program of federal aid to Ohio for short-term projects, to be undertaken.

Jakarta Says Rebel Capital Is Captured

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Jubilantly proclaiming the capture of Padang, President Sukarno's government said today its forces are advancing on the last rebel stronghold in Sumatra.

Six thousand marines, foot soldiers and commandos swarmed into the port city of 150,000 beginning at dawn Thursday and routed the rebels to the dense Sumatran jungles by nightfall. The next objective was Bukittinggi, the mountain rebel capital 40 miles north of Padang.

A Jakarta regiment also was reported moving on rebel troops in the Celebes, the octopus-shaped islands 1,200 miles to the east which stood with Sumatra in the outer islands' fight against Jakarta.

The rebels claim Sukarno's government on Java has been too friendly with the Communists and short-changed them on foreign trade revenues from their own rich oil, copra, spice and other exports.

The fall of Padang signalled the last days of the two-month-old rebel government. But it remained to be seen whether the Sumatran rebels would make good their threat to wage a nagging guerrilla war from the jungles, the same sort of war which the Indonesians carried on against the Dutch until they got their independence.

Ohio's Highway Aid Share: $24 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio will get $24,397,246 from a bill signed Wednesday by President Eisenhower which sets aside $600 million for federal aid highway money.

Ohio's share includes $8,527,867 for that portion of federal interstate highway system passing through the state; $6,258,221 for primary roads; $2,797,497 for feeder roads and $5,820,661 for urban projects.

Two Sentenced On Check Counts

Arraignments Held On Jury Indictments

Four men indicted on worthless check charges by the April term grand jury were arraigned in Common Pleas Court Friday morning.

Two pleaded guilty to the charges, one entered a plea of not guilty and the case of the fourth was continued until Monday.

Richard L. Rhoads, 28, Greenfield, indicted for drawing a check with insufficient funds, first pleaded not guilty to the two indictments returned against him, and the cases were set for trial beginning May 28.

An hour later Rhoads asked permission to change his plea to guilty, and the court granted the request. He was sentenced to the Mansfield Reformatory for from one to three years.

Louis H. Rauschenberg, 35, Twin Rivers, Wis., pleaded guilty to a charge of uttering and publishing a forged check and received a one-to-two year sentence in the Ohio Penitentiary.

Leslie Ison, 32, Fairborn, indicted on the same charge, pleaded not guilty and the trial date was set for Monday, May 26, at 9 a. m. He was returned to jail in default of bond.

George Hamlin, 32, Frankfort, indicted on two counts of uttering and publishing forged checks, asked for counsel, and Judge Case appointed Attorney John Bath to represent him. The court granted Bath's request for postponement of the arraignment until 10 a. m. Monday.

Robert G. Rosendahl, 21, and Paul A. Kaebli, 19, both of Cincinnati, were not available for arraignment Friday on charges of carrying concealed weapons. Both are in the Hamilton County jail awaiting grand jury action in connection with burglary of Cincinnati homes.

Judge Case will set a later date for their arraignment here.

FCC Ordered To Review TV Case in Miami

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission has been ordered to make its own investigation of irregularities in a Miami TV case already probed by a House subcommittee.

The order was issued Thursday by the U. S. Court of Appeals which told the FCC to determine whether one or more of the applicants for TV Channel 10 in Miami "may be disqualified by reason of misconduct to receive an award of a television construction permit."

The upshot could be loss of the channel license by Public Service Television Inc., a National Airlines subsidiary, which was awarded the permit in February 1957 on a 4-2 vote of the FCC.

A House subcommittee which looked into the case for nearly two months heard testimony of pressures exerted on behalf of rival applicants for the TV channel, valued at millions of dollars. Details of any wrongdoing were made by National Airlines officials and by Col. A. Frank Katzentine, a Miami Beach radio station operator who lost in his bid for the TV channel.

Gromyko Hits Bomber Flights Toward Russia

U. N. To Get Red Protest Against U.S. Operations

MOSCOW (AP)—Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today accused the United States of sending planes armed with atomic and hydrogen bombs across the Polar region toward the Soviet Union.

He announced a protest against these "provocative flights" was being sent to the U. N. Security Council and deplored the flights at a time when East and West finally appeared on the verge of agreeing to the holding of a long-awaited summit conference.

Gromyko told a news conference such flights were "unheard of in times of peace" and the Kremlin demands their immediate cessation. He said they carry the danger of worldwide atomic war.

If the United States is trying to intimidate the Soviet Union with these flights, he said, it is wasting its time.

"The Soviet Union has sufficiently strong nerves and its armed forces can if necessary deliver a crushing retaliatory blow to any aggressor," he added.

IN WASHINGTON, the White House put a "not true" brand on the Soviet accusation.

President Eisenhower, informed of the Gromyko charge, discussed the matter with Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald Quarles and Under Secretary of State Christian Herter. They were sitting in for Secretary of State Dulles and Secretary of Defense McElroy, both of whom are away from Washington.

"The Soviet government would not like to believe that these actions of the American Air Force have been sanctioned by the United States government and by President Eisenhower personally," Gromyko said, "but none has made any statements to the contrary, either."

GROMYKO TOLD his news conference that one slip by a U. S. technician manning the radar screens of the American early warning system could precipitate a global atomic war.

The U. S. Air Force command, Gromyko said, has confirmed that American bombers carrying atomic and hydrogen bombs are repeatedly sent across the North Pole toward the Soviet Union.

This happens, he said, every time a blip appears on U. S. radar screens.

American radar screen operators have mistaken electronic disturbances or meteorite showers

Moscow has chosen a strange moment for its latest blast against the United States. It seems as such an attempt to frighten the Soviet people as to impress the outside world.

The threat to arraign the United States before the U. N. Security Council, for alleged H-bomb passes in Moscow's direction, raises a serious question: How much peace can Soviet boss Nikita Khrushchev afford at this time?

The barrage burst in the midst of diplomatic negotiations on summit meeting prospects. It thus reinforces a suspicion that the Kremlin is less interested in examining real threats to world peace than it is in blaming international tensions on the United States. The continued existence of tensions appears to have some value for Khrushchev.

The most acute observers of the Soviet scene, the Yugoslavs, long ago laid down the postulate that Soviet diplomacy becomes belligerent in direct ratio to internal political dissension.

ANDREI GROMYKO'S blast coincides with a renewed attack by the Kremlin on internal enemies. For several days Pravda, newspaper of the ruling Communist party, has been attacking the so-called antiparty group ousted last summer by Khrushchev.

JEREMIAH MCCRAY

Ag Research Stepup Urged

Farm Scientist Cites Need for Studies

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's top farm scientist says more agricultural research is needed if the United States is to maintain a lead over Russia in agricultural production.

Dr. Byron T. Shaw, administrator of the Agricultural Research Service, said the existence of surpluses in some crops does not indicate, as some farm leaders have said, that there is need for a "holiday in agricultural research."

"Our nation's continued world leadership in agriculture depends upon production research," he said. "It would be dangerous to underestimate how much is enough."

He said science must find ways of producing good foods, especially livestock products, more efficiently and more cheaply so that more consumers will be able to get more of them. Many do not now get enough, he said, because of prices.

HE SAID science must find the means to make it attractive for grain and cotton farmers, in fact all of those who today have no choice but to produce already too abundant commodities, to switch some of their acres to products with growing markets.

"Twenty years from now we will not think that we were doing too much production research in 1957. In looking back, we will be amazed that we were satisfied with a production research effort whose emphasis was so heavily geared to holding the line," he said.

Cop-Slayer Ruled Sane

JEFFERSON (AP)—Arthur Cole, 47, accused of slaying Ashtabula policeman Eino Tiivola, is sane and must stand trial for murder, Judge Harold J. Richmond ruled Thursday.

Reager had testified at McCray's trial March 13 that he, McCray and a group of other Negroes watched television in Mrs. Griffin's home the night of Feb. 2. He said the other Negroes left and, at McCray's orders, he tied Mrs. Griffin.

In a statement given police, McCray said he returned alone to Mrs. Griffin's home, untied her and raped her under threat of death. After she threatened to inform on him, he killed her.

Besides Mrs. DeWitt and Mrs. Griffin, McCray listed his other victims as Mrs. Virginia MacLin Stevens, 74, of Colonial Heights, Va.; Mrs. Daisy G. Gilbert, 75, of Oxford, Ala.; and Robert Hanbury, 53, of Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Gilbert was slain in 1956, Hanbury in 1957 and Mrs. Stevens this year.

Fayette County Killer Executed In Virginia Pen

Hobo Pays Penalty For Rape-Murder Of Dixie Woman

Jermiah McCray, 25-year-old Alabama - bred hobo who killed Mrs. Sarah C. DeWitt near Washington C. H. last July 2, died Friday morning in the electric chair at the Virginia State Penitentiary, Bowling Green, Va.

The itinerant Negro, who once said "everyone I ever robbed I killed," was pronounced dead at 7:43 a. m. He was convicted March 13 by an all - male jury in Virginia Circuit Court for the rape-slaying of Mrs. Jeanette M. Griffin, a 49-year-old widow at her home in Ladysmith, near Bowling Green, Feb. 2.

It was while being questioned at State Police headquarters outside Richmond Feb. 7 that McCray told officers of four other killings besides that of Mrs. Griffin. His admission of the DeWitt slaying ended a protracted seven-month search by law officers all over this area.

THE BODY of 87-year-old Mrs. DeWitt was found across a double bed in her shaded bungalow on the CCC highway three miles north of here. Her face and neck were gashed by four hatchet blows, and her own hatchet, covered with blood, lay beside the body on the bed.

McCray told Fayette County Sheriff Orland Hays, who went to Virginia after the hobo admitted the killings, that he came to Ohio "to rob and kill." He said he took about $250 from purses and other locations around Mrs. DeWitt's home.

McCray said he came here from his home in Talladega, Ala., partly by bus and partly hitchhiking. He said he left Talladega about the last day of June and was back in Talladega by July 4.

TWO NEGROS and 10 whites were on the jury which convicted McCray March 13 of the first-degree murder of Mrs. Griffin. The trial took but a single day, and no appeal was made.

Mrs. Griffin's battered body was found on the floor of her kitchen early the morning of Feb. 3. Police said she had been raped, then beaten to death with sticks of firewood.

McCray and another Negro, Rush Reager, 20, were arrested later that day and charged with murder. Reager was convicted of rape Thursday by Circuit Judge Leon M. Bazile at Bowling Green. Bazile withheld formal sentencing of Reager pending receipt of a probation report but said he would sentence the man to life imprisonment.

Reager had testified at McCray's trial March 13 that he, McCray and a group of other Negroes watched television in Mrs. Griffin's home the night of Feb. 2. He said the other Negroes left and, at McCray's orders, he tied Mrs. Griffin.

In a statement given police, McCray said he returned alone to Mrs. Griffin's home, untied her and raped her under threat of death. After she threatened to inform on him, he killed her.

News in Brief

Sunken Ship Blast Kills 40

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—A sunken World War II ship loaded with ammunition blew up off Okinawa Thursday night, killing an estimated 40 natives exploring it for scrap in violation of regulations.

The explosion left a large oil slick. There was no visible trace of bodies or a number of fishing boats known to have been in the area at the time. Police based their estimate of the dead on a check of persons missing from nearby villages.

Scrap hunting has long been one of the most profitable postwar occupations of Okinawans despite prohibitions and warnings from the U. S. military administration. The wreck was believed that of the Canada Victory, sunk during the battle of Okinawa.

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—South Africa's militantly segregationist government has won another five years in power with its parliamentary strength virtually unchanged.

TOKYO (AP)—The secretary general of Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's Liberal-Democratic party said tonight the Japanese Parliament will be dissolved this month, probably next Friday or Saturday.

This will precipitate Japan's seventh postwar election and Kishi's first personal test of strength with the opposition Socialists at the polls.

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—An Army court-martial today fined M. Sgt. Robert E. Weidensaul of Pottstown, Pa., $120 for roughing up a teen-age Korean thief and nailing him into a narrow, three-foot-long box.

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Britain threw its support today behind an American proposal for extending the limit of territorial waters from three nautical miles to six.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Nationalist China today signed an agreement to buy 10 1/2 million dollars worth of surplus farm commodities from the United States. The Nationalist government also will pay $1,600,000 as half of the estimated transportation cost.

LONDON (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today presented a check for 50,000 marks—$11,900—toward rebuilding Coventry Cathedral, destroyed by German bombs during World War II.

MONTREAL (AP)—A glass jar containing about 17,000 pennies proved too heavy for thieves who grabbed it after smashing the window of a bank Thursday night.

It took 10 policemen an hour to pick up the coins from the street a few blocks away.

TOKYO (AP)—The lower house of Japan's Diet—its Parliament—today unanimously adopted a resolution urging immediate cessation of nuclear weapon tests and production by all powers having atom and hydrogen bombs.

WHS Approved For 48th Time

High Standards Met
For Another Year

Washington C. H. High School has been placed on the accredited list of secondary schools by the North-central Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the 48th consecutive years.

Notice has just been received from the Chicago headquarters of the association that the school here has been approved for the ensuing year (1958-59) and that "the certificate of membership you now have continues in force."

The school was first accredited in 1910, records here show, and has never been dropped since then.

Approval of a high school for the accredited list is based on a rigid set of standards, standards which both Principal Kaye Blosser and Superintendent W. A. Smith said are higher than those set up by the state Department of Education.

BEFORE APPROVAL is granted, Blosser pointed out, the teachers must be qualified to teach the subjects assigned to them and have state certificates; the buildings and equipment, particularly that in the chemistry and physics laboratories and shops, must come up to standard; the library must have a minimum number of prescribed books and be under the supervision of a trained (with a degree) full time librarian; and the curriculum must provide the courses to meet college entrance requirements.

These are only some of the basic requirements, Blosser said, which are contained in a thick book of standards compiled by the association.

Each year, he explained, a form is filled out and filed with the association for its annual rating.

White Supremacy Party Wins in South Africa

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Prime Minister Johannes Strijdom led his Nationalist party to an impressive victory in the South African parliamentary elections, returns showed today.

The Nationalists, who favor rigid segregation and all-white rule, have won 82 seats to 50 for the opposition United party. Most of the unreported 24 seats were in constituencies safe for the Nationalists.

High School Students To Show What They Can Do

Science Project Exhibit Here Saturday

All kinds of gadgets—and all of them for a purpose—will be set up in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium here Saturday by high school students for the second annual Science Awards program.

Between 60 and 70 scientific projects are expected to be placed on exhibit by from 70 to 80 high school students in Washington C. H. and Fayette County.

Originally, there were 78 entries by 96 students — some were joint entries by two students — but 12 exhibits had been withdrawn by today, H. S. Stemple of The Armco Drainage and Metal Products Co. here, chairman of the program this year, said it is possible that a few of those which had been entered will not be set up when the time comes for the competition.

THE PROGRAM here is the first step in the four-county competition that will earn scholarships with a total value of $4,800 for three of the budding young scientists.

The second, and final step, will be taken just a week later at Wilmington College, where the top-rated three in each of five categories in the county competition will vie for district honors—and scholarships and other awards.

The program is sponsored here by Armco and the National Cash Register Co. Stemple is the chairman and William Hastings of NCR is co-chairman.

A. H. Hutton, district manager of AD&MP, and Joseph E. Peters, manager of NCR operations here, have kept in close touch with the plans. Elmer Reed, Armco industrial engineer and president of the Washington C. H. Board of Education, has been acting in an advisory capacity, since he was chairman of the program when it was started here last year.

THE PROJECTS will be in five categories: one in general science for seventh, eighth and ninth grades students and four for students in the top three grades in high school — biology, chemistry, engineering and physics.

Stemple and Hastings and four men, two from Armco and two from NCR, were at the DP&L auditorium today arranging tables and running electric lines to several of them, for the exhibits.

The projects are to be set up Saturday morning by the students.

DR. SAMUEL MARBLE

Co-chairman of the district Science Awards Program at Wilmington College.

KENNETH R. NICHOLS

They will be judged by eight judges in the afternoon. They will be left up Saturday night for visitors to look them over from 7 until 9 p. m.

The judges, who have not been identified, will come from colleges and engineering and research departments of industries. When they look over the projects, they will recognize them only as numbers, for names of the exhibitors will not be on them.

THE THREE top-rated projects in each of the five categories (including the one in the junior division) in the county program, will receive engraved plaques and the right to enter the district competition against students from Butler, Warren and Clinton counties at Wilmington College in the finals on April 26.

Dr. Samuel Marble, president of Wilmington College, and Kenneth R. Nichols, personnel manager of the Cincinnati Milling Machine Co. plant, are co-chairmen of the district competition.

The Cincinnati Milling Machine Co. and the Armco Steel Co. are providing the scholarships which will help the three winners attend the college or university of their choice.

The Science Awards program was founded in 1956 by Frederick Geier, president of the Cincinnati Co., and Charles R. Hook, Armco board chairman.

It is designed to stimulate more interest in the study of the sciences in high school.

Interest in the program has grown considerably since it was founded. Each year additional companies and businessmen have joined the list of sponsors. Co-operation of the schools always has been high.

The 1,500 project exhibits entered this year in the county programs represents an increase of more than 50 per cent over the number entered last year.

Wife-Swapping Slayer Convicted In Death of Child

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — The death penalty was prescribed Thursday by a jury that convicted wife-swapping Thomas Whitaker, 36, of first-degree murder of his daughter, Regina, 9.

Neither the truck driver nor his present wife, Dorothy, 39, showed any emotion as the jury brought in its verdict.

Whitaker surrendered last June 28, the day after a shooting that fatally wounded the daughter. Killed in the same shooting were Whitaker's former wife, Alma Whitaker Martin, 36, and their son, Jack, 11.

Are proud to provide the program and prizes for the purpose of stimulating interest in the fields of Science and Engineering.

The OBJECTIVES of The Science Awards Program Are:

- To encourage greater interest in scientific study and research in the 7th through 12th grades of school.
- To give the public an opportunity to see the results of the science teaching programs in this area.
- To give the student with scientific aptitude an opportunity to win recognition both in his school and community by creative work in an important academic field.

Judging of the displays will be held on Saturday afternoon. Awards will be presented to the first, second and third place winners in each of the five categories: General Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Engineering.

The Sponsoring Teachers of the winners will receive a cash award for the purpose of obtaining equipment or technical books for their school's Science Department.

FINAL AWARD PROGRAM

APRIL 26, 1958 WILMINGTON COLLEGE GYM WILMINGTON, OHIO

3. THIRD PRIZE for best Senior Exhibit in Final Contest. Armco Foundation Science Scholarship Award of $800 and engraved trophy.

We wish to compliment the students, parents, teachers and educators who have cooperated to make this program possible. Our thanks also go to the Dayton Power and Light Co. for the use of their auditorium and facilities.

May The Local Winners Go On To Victory in The Finals

Each Individual Important In an Election

To every Fayette County citizen who is eligible to vote, it should be apparent that the near approach of the primary election date, May 6, should mean that he and she should make an honest effort to learn about the qualifications of candidates for the offices they seek.

Those who are to be nominated at this election become candidates for actual election to the positions they seek at the general election next November. Thus the proper exercise of the choice of candidates of either party, for election in November, lies in the hands of people who are individuals.

It seems unfortunate that so many adult individuals assume the position that their particular votes are negligible and it makes little difference whether or not they vote.

Every year it becomes evident that a lot of time and persuasion is necessary to make so many people realize that the total vote of any community is made up of individuals; that far too many have the same careless attitude. They fail to recognize their real responsibility as citizens. This is true not only in this community but all over our nation.

It often has happened that when a large number of people, in a community, or a state, decide on any occasion that their votes are not necessary or don't matter, the result at the polls is sometimes damaging to the public interest.

Today we have close to 170 million people in our country with a total of 220 million expected by 1975. Most of us are in the cities and towns. As we mill about, rubbing elbows and jarring ribs, we may conclude—not surprisingly—that as individual humans we count for less and less.

This isn't really true. No matter how many of us there are on the scene, our country and our world can only be the sum of all the things we all do as individuals both in our private and our public lives.

In the tighter circle of family, friends and neighbors, we are always an irreplaceable link. We cannot die, move away, go to jail or even get a divorce without breaking the circle and leaving an unhappy void.

As we move through life, we play countless interlocking roles, from time to time dropping some and adding others. When somehow we step out of this complex web, or shatter a firm pattern, all those we touch in our daily passage are affected. In greater or lesser measure, their lives will never be the same.

Thus it becomes every one of us to realize and act accordingly in fulfilling our civic responsibilities.

Certainly exercising our right to vote is one of the most important of these.

Are You Older or Younger?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Science raises the possibility that a man can buy a ticket to the nearest star and come back maybe a boy.

This idea is based on the theory that the faster you go the younger you get. We have seen this tried many times and can't count any winners, although we recall a number who died smiling among their wrinkles.

The conception of time is a hard thing for any human to embrace. Is he older than he feels? Is he younger than he knows? How to tell?

Here is a Baedeker of personal antiquity:
You're older if you pause before a flight of stairs, take a deep breath, then gallop up them a step at a time.

You're younger if you boldly wink at a pretty girl, and don't pretend to wipe a clinker out of your eye.

You're older if your wife has to gear your pride up to make you ask for a raise.

You're younger if you wear a hat in the summer merely to be better dressed and hope that'll make a sale.

You're older if you think that over the hill lies the poor house.

You're younger if you think that every molehill is a fresh stepping stone to opportunity.

You're older if the boss puts his arm around your shoulder and you feel the loneliness in his fingers.

You're younger if, putting your own hand around the boss's shoulders, you absent-mindedly feel for a soft spot.

You're older if, on a moonlit night, your wife sighs and you know what you are both missing. You're younger if you look at the moon and wonder who'll be first to land on it.

You're older if you hope time and effort will show you a way out.

You're younger if you demand that the government do it.

You're older if all this stirs an echo in you.

You're younger if it doesn't.

Diary Mirrors the Soul

By George Sokolsky

There was a time when great men knew that they were great and they wrote books about themselves.

Perhaps the most famous of these is Julius Caesar's account of himself and his wars which every schoolboy had to learn as part of his education before the saxophone and skin-diving became cultural subjects.

More recently, great men hire press agents and ghost writers to do such jobs, as, for instance, Wendell Willkie hired Joe Barnes to do his "One World" book and, for that matter, the aforesaid Barnes aided Gen. Eisenhower to do his "Crusade in Europe." However, Winston Churchill and Herbert Hoover continue to do their own, unassisted by experts in spelling and punctuation.

Hoover's book on Woodrow Wilson, shortly to appear, contains considerable new data, much of it from correspondence heretofore unavailable and from private diaries, hidden away in the libraries of universities and in the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, situated at Stanford University in California.

Upon inquiry I find that the Hoover Institution contains a large accumulation of diaries, in many languages, some of which can be of great value to the future historian. A sample of what they have at the Hoover Institution follows:

Joseph Goebbels — Handwritten Diary for 1925-26; Type-written for 1943.

Heinrich Himmler — For 1914-24.

General Joseph W. Stilwell — From Pearl Harbor through World War II.

Herbert Hoover — Including His Diary Notes of Negotiations with Germans for Relief during World War I.

V. I. Gurko — Assistant Russian Minister of the Interior and Member of the Russian State Council under Czar Nicholas II.

Count V. N. Kokovtsov — Chairman of the Russian Council of Ministers, 1911, 1914.

Anton Z. Ovchinnikov — A Member of Adm. Kolchak's Anti-Bolshevik Forces in Siberia.

Rudolf Holsti — Finnish Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Frans L. M. Dony — Member of Dutch Underground, 1943-44.

Often the great man of a former era becomes a forgotten man of succeeding eras and his well-kept diary may be of no value because the fellow was dishonest to himself. He wrote for publication.

The greatest value of a diary over an autobiography is that the diary can be a mirror of a man's soul whereas the autobiography is what he wants people to believe about him.

Harry Truman's autobiography, for instance, while it contains much interesting data, is historically not too valuable because Harry appraises Harry as only his best friends think of him. Maybe Harry has kept a diary and some day, we shall know of his trials and tribulations, his doubts, his fears, his uncertainties.

Thus far, there has been no correct account of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Biographical material about Roosevelt is plentiful, but it is written by friend or foe and much is obviously untrue for no such perfection ever existed on this earth and no such devil could long survive his own shadow.

If Roosevelt kept a diary it has been kept quiet, and is unavailable for our vulgar eyes. It would be historically of value to know what Roosevelt thought of his spouse, Eleanor. Perhaps all that will become available and we shall have a true picture of the man.

Roosevelt was a cynic to a degree, and one wonders what he thought of the characters, Republican as well as Democrat, who after 1936, invaded his administration to make careers for themselves. Some of them were peculiarities in American life and some are still around, looking here and there for public approval and a job with which also goes applause.

He introduced so many of them

Ax-Slayer Ordered To Insane Hospital

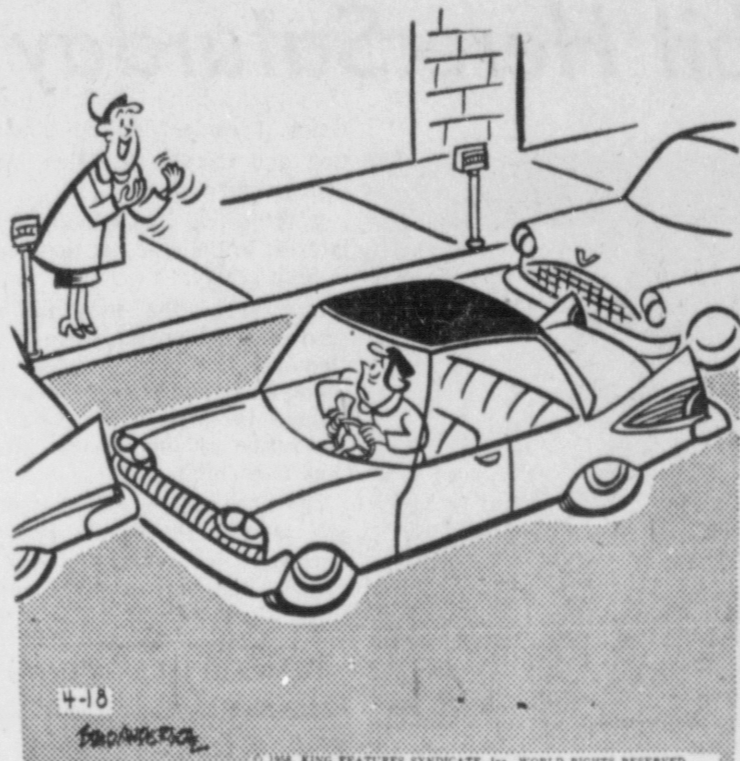

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—An odd-job workman who killed his mother with an ax because, he said, Domsday was approaching has been adjudged insane.

A circuit court jury directed that Gilbert A. Nelson, 50, be confined in the Illinois Security Hospital in Chester for killing his mother, Maine, 78, and dismembering her body March 13.

He explained his act to authorities by saying, "Domsday was approaching."

Diet and Health Finland Makes Study Of Brandy vs Beer

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

SINCE World War II, alcoholism has become an ever-increasing problem. The cup of cheer, no matter what it contains, has become a means for more and more people—especially the neurotic and unstable—to escape, temporarily, from the problems and unpleasantness of real life.

World of Illusion
Most two-fisted drinkers apparently prefer to leap off into the world of illusions and dreams via the liquor route. Other drinkers prefer beer, insisting most vociferously, but not too steadily, that beer is not as intoxicating as liquor.

Recently a reader inquired as to the merits of such an argument. Is beer, he asked, as intoxicating as liquor?
I haven't conducted any study of the matter. But before I'm swamped with volunteers for such a research project, let me explain that one already has been made—in Finland.

Recent Study
The Finnish Foundation for Alcohol Studies recently published a physiologic, physiologic and neurologic study of the relative effects of distilled and brewed beverages.
Using volunteers who drank at their accustomed rate, the researchers compared the differences between brandy and beer.

Now these results are not conclusive. But they give some preliminary good indications of the effects of brewed and distilled beverages upon an individual's reactions.

Has More Effect
The tests showed that brandy had a stronger effect than beer did on speech. Most characteristic effect of brandy, the investigators reported, was that it made the drinkers coarse and uncontrollably aggressive.

The behavior of the brandy drinkers, after intoxication, was more active than that of the beer drinkers. Outbursts were personal and reached a crisis quickly.

On the other hand, reactions of the beer drinkers were much weaker. Beer more often produced inability to see clearly and slowed response to reality.

In many respects, the study showed, the effects of brandy were more rapid and more definite than the effects of beer. Within an hour after drinking brandy, the volunteers lost most of their manual dexterity. It took beer drinkers from one to three hours to reach the same stage.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
S. B.: My baby, one month, has a constant tearing from the eye. The eye is not inflamed.

What causes this?
Answer: It would seem your child has some difficulty with the tear duct. It would be well for you to consult your physician.

Corn Belt Cattle Feeding Boosted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers have put a record number of beef cattle on feed this spring for fattening for future slaughter.

The Agriculture Department reported the number in the 13 major feeding states at 4,896,000 head, up 12 per cent from a year ago.

This big buildup is concentrated in the Midwestern Corn Belt. It reflects a 25 per cent increase in beef cattle prices and an abundant supply of low-priced feed.

Ohio is not going along with the increase. It has 158,000 head, a drop of 2 per cent. Indiana also is down with 242,000 head, a drop of 10 per cent.

Pay Hike Demands Said 'Dangerous'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Board Chairman Roger M. Blough of the U.S. Steel Corp. said Thursday a dangerous hoax is being perpetrated on American workers by persons who recommend higher wages as a means of increasing purchasing power.

In a speech before the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Blough said:

"They know that higher wage costs can only be met by higher prices, so that in the end no increase in purchasing power results. Meanwhile the ability of the American workmen to compete with their industrious counterparts abroad is further diminished."

CLINTON COUNTY AND GREENE COUNTY FARM

147 ACRES

SATURDAY, APR. 26,
SELLS AT 2:00 P. M.

LOCATED—Thirteen miles southeast of Xenia, Ohio, nine miles north of Wilmington, one-half mile north of Port William, on the Paintersville Road.

This good 147-acre farm is exceptionally well located in one of Ohio's best agricultural areas. Clinton and Greene Counties are recognized as having some of the best farming land in the state. If you are looking for a good all-purpose farm, this one will merit your inspection.

The improvements on this 147-acre farm include two complete sets of farm buildings. No. 1 set of buildings includes a substantial, two-story, frame home consisting of six rooms, enclosed back porch, utility room and full basement; large living room, 20x14; two bedrooms; large kitchen, with well and cistern water; utility room down; two bedrooms up; three large wardrobes; full basement; Lennox fuel-oil furnace; electricity. Located on blacktop road, with nice lawn and plenty of shade. 50x45 barn with 7 stanchions, machinery storage; mow space for 3,000 bales; 27x12 attached hog shed; 1,000-bushel attached corn crib, with driveway; barn has concrete floor; electricity and water; 250-bushel single corn crib; 24x12 poultry house with concrete floor; 12x10 brooder house with electricity; two-car garage with concrete floor; all buildings are under good roofs. No. 2 set of buildings includes one-floor plan, frame home, consisting of five rooms, with electricity; 40x40 barn; corn crib; feeding area for cattle or hogs; 1,800-bushel double corn crib, three years old; 15x10 poultry house; all buildings are under good roofs and are basically in good repair.

Land is mostly level; approximately 122 acres tillable, balance in blue grass. Most of this farm has been limed and fertilized in the last few years and is in a high state of cultivation. Three wells and a never-failing creek furnish plenty of water; drainage is good; fences are above average. Farm is rented for this year to a very reliable tenant. Landlord's share of all growing crops, including 15 acres of wheat and six acres of barley, go with farm. Both sets of buildings are located on a blacktop road; all rural deliveries; short distance from schools, churches, and markets. If you are looking for a good all-purpose farm for an investment or a home, this will merit your inspection.

Sale on premises. Sells to the highest bidder.
INSPECTION-FINANCING — Inspection is permitted any time prior to day of sale. This farm will qualify for a long-term insurance loan. For further information, contact Darbyshire & Associates, Inc., Wilmington, Ohio. Phone 2292, evenings 4925.

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY
Ohio's new merit point system law is having a very wholesome effect on traffic violators—take it from Police Chief Vaiden Long. The latter states that fear of losing the driving rights is reducing the number of drunk drivers, speeders and traffic law violators generally.

This new law was adopted by the last Legislature, and has been in effect for sometime.
Under its provisions when a driver receives 12 merit points, in two years time from the first offense, his or her license to drive will be suspended for one year.

Six merit points are provided for each of the following offenses: Manslaughter resulting from operation of a motor vehicle; driving while drunk; failing to stop and disclose identity at scene of an accident; driving while permit is revoked.
Offenses in which three merit points are chalked up against operators include: Reckless operation, violating any speed law or ordinance, and for all other violations.

When a driver's merit points number six, he is to receive a letter of warning, and when 12 points are reached, suspension of driving permit for a year results.

Recently when the traffic timer was set up here, not a single violator was rounded up, and the number of traffic offenses generally has been dropping, all because drivers don't want to lose their driving rights for a year, Chief Long believes.

SPRING SIGNS
Many spring signs have suddenly come to light during the week as spring-like weather supplanted the cold raining days.
For instance I note the park benches on the Courthouse lawn are beginning to be populated once more.

Trees are showing buds almost ready to burst into leaf, and honeybees are flying about seeking a supply of nectar from the first blossoms.
Spring peepers are making their presence known in no uncertain manner.

Work in gardens and flower beds is under way, and the grass, which was seared by the severe cold in February and March, has suddenly developed into a green carpet.
Insects flying at night have spotted windshield with their smashed bodies.

Kite flying is in evidence, and a cleaning up of premises has started.
I notice tomato plants, onion sets, cabbage plants, and garden seeds are being featured by dealers.
Other dealers have hoes, rakes, plows, and trowels on display for those who are garden-minded.
Yep! Spring is really here.

BOOKLET ON INDIANS
"Indian Tribes of Ohio" recently compiled by Mrs. Max G. Dice and issued under auspices of the Fayette County Historical Society, is meeting with ready response on the part of those who wish authentic information regarding these early residents of Ohio.

The booklet is from notes taken by Miss Clara G. Mark, formerly of Fayette County, from lectures by Prof. W. C. Mills in November, 1922.

Prof. Mills was for many years one of the leading authorities on archaeology and the Indians, so the information in the booklet, only 50 copies of which have been issued and which sells for 75 cents, is dependable.

On the first page of the booklet is a hand-colored map of Ohio showing distribution of the eight tribes of Indians in Ohio.
The map shows the Shawnees not only was the chief tribe in Fayette County, but in most of the southern Ohio counties, extending northwest into Auglaize County.

The Miami were in some 10 counties on the western edge of the state; Ottawas in northwestern Ohio; Wyandots in north central Ohio; Mingoes in the central counties; Delawares in the middle eastern counties, and the Tuscarawas and Senecas in a dozen counties in the extreme northeastern part of the state.

The text gives valuable information as to rise and fall of the various tribes and their chiefs during their contacts with the white race. The brochure should also be a valuable addition to every school library.

Milk Prices Boosted By Dairy in Toledo

TOLEDO (AP) — Babcock Dairy raised the price of home-delivered milk a cent to 23 cents a quart Thursday, and other Toledo dairies were expected to make the same boost over the weekend.

This will nullify a 1-cent decrease which went into effect earlier this month. The increase followed a threat last week that dairy farmers in the Toledo milkshed would boycott the area unless the dairies agreed to pay them $1.25 a hundredweight above the basic formula rate.

New Officers Presented at Sorority Meeting

New officers for the coming year were introduced at the regular meeting of Graduate Sorority which was held in the home of Mrs. Charles McCoy with 34 members present.

These officers included Mrs. Robert Creamer, primus; Mrs. Willis Chrisman, pro-primus; Mrs. John Noble, tribune; Mrs. J. O. Garringer, quaestor; Mrs. James Hagler and Mrs. Fred Braddock J., corresponding tribunes; and Mrs. Ralph Cook, state corresponding tribune.

It was voted to sponsor the Blood Bank in October, and a discussion was held on operating a concession stand at the county fair this year.

It was announced that Mrs. Robert Creamer and Mrs. Chrisman will represent the sorority at the spring convention in Columbus on April 27.

Mrs. McCoy introduced Mrs. Charles Andrews as a guest. Devotions were presented by Mrs. Loren Noble.

Following the business session, the losers in the attendance contest entertained the winners by presenting a very amusing style show featuring the chemise look. Mrs. Everett White was the commentator.

The losers also served refreshments.

Busy Bee Garden Club Holds Open Meeting

Members of the Busy Bee Garden Club held an open meeting in the Jeffersonville Methodist Church Thursday night.

The 40 guests attending were members of other Fayette County garden clubs and the Jeffersonville Lions Club.

The group was entertained with a film entitled "Touring Ohio," shown by Mr. Norman Recla of the Standard Oil Co.

A tea followed the program. The delicacies were served by the refreshment committee: Mrs. Jess Garringer, Mrs. Etta Hayes and Mrs. Roy Young, and the officers. Instrumental music was presented by Donnie, Jackie and Dickie Creamer. They were accompanied on the piano by Sara Sue Davidson.

A beautiful past officers jewel was presented to Mrs. Evelyn Christopher by Mrs. Van Zant. A past officers jewel was also presented to Mr. Tom Christopher by Mrs. Reed.

Delightful tea delicacies were served from a lace covered table adorned with lovely floral arrangements in candleholders.

Mrs. Reinke was chairman of the reception.

Mrs. Vincent Honored with Layette Shower

Mrs. Paul Gault, Miss Lucy Randolph and Mrs. Fred Cook combined hospitalities and honored Mrs. Lester Vincent (Zana Cowdery) with a layette shower in the lovely home of Mrs. Gault Tuesday night.

The gaily wrapped packages were placed on a table which was centered with a cradle decorated with pale green silk ruffles over which stood a stork wearing yellow rain apparel and black shiny boots and carrying a green silk and net umbrella.

Mrs. Joe Elliott was presented a prize in a contest played.

Mrs. Vincent opened her lovely array of gifts and thanked each guest graciously.

Refreshments, further carrying out the yellow and green color scheme, were served by the hostesses to the 50 guests attending who were from Mt. Sterling, Good Hope, Bloomington, New Holland, Madison Mills, Circleville and Washington C. H.

Little bunches of grapes, dipped in lemon juice and sprinkled with sugar, are attractive garnishes.

Country Club Luncheon Attended by 45 Women

Forty-five women attended the Country Club bridge luncheon on which was held Thursday afternoon.

For the serving of a delicious dinner, guests were seated at tables which were centered with lovely arrangements of jonquils.

Ten tables of bridge were enjoyed with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Harry Rankin and Mrs. J. J. Kelley. Special prize were presented to Mrs. Clarence Craig, Miss Edna Thompson and Mrs. C. D. Young.

The committee in charge of the enjoyable afternoon consisted of Mrs. Robert Edge and Mrs. Howard Wright.

Madison Mills MYF Holds Meeting

Carol Grim led the group in fellowship songs to start the recent meeting of the Madison Mills Methodist Youth Fellowship. Afterwards she gave devotions, entitled "The Spirit of Jesus Lives On".

Don-Hanawalt, president, opened the business session, and Mary K. Recob read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll, to which 16 members responded.

The Rev. Paul Lindsey will be visiting the Madison Mills Church Sunday evening to tell the congregation of his trip to the United Nations.

The MYF group voted for conference delegates. Six members said that they possibly would be able to go to camp this summer.

After the meeting was closed, everyone adjourned to the annex for games, and refreshments served by Janet Store and Jane Belt.

Jane Belt will have devotions, and Lowell Hidy and Wayne Hidy will bring refreshments to the next meeting.

Porter Sees O'Neill Building Monument

COLUMBUS (AP)—Albert S. Porter of Cleveland Thursday said Gov. C. William O'Neill administration is seeking to build a monument to itself in the Cincinnati-Conneaut freeway.

"The State Highway Department will ignore all other highway needs to build this freeway," the candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination told the Franklin County Young Democrats Club.

He added, "They want to be able to tell the public that they built a free turnpike and it won't cost a cent in toll charges."

Drivers Give Views

DETROIT (AP)—Eighty per cent of motorists involved in auto crashes call themselves good or excellent drivers and 82 per cent blame other motorists for their accidents, according to a University of Michigan survey.

LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. of Cleveland has paid the state of Michigan $416,800 in additional corporation privilege tax fees for 1952 through 1957 pursuant to a March 6 state supreme court decision.

The court case settled questions involving the company's tax liability as to stock owned in various steel companies.

The state contended the stocks should be considered as assets in determining tax liability. The company argued that because they were taxable in Ohio, its domicile state, no part of their value should be allocated to Michigan.

Veteran Congressman, 74, Waging 'Fight of His Life'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Weeks before President Eisenhower's proposals for a more centralized control over the armed services were made public, an associate of Rep. Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) told a reporter: "The old man's getting ready for the fight of his life. I think he'll win it."

On Wednesday, "Uncle Carl" Vinson, looking like the 74-year-old prosperous farmer that he is, fired his first salvo.

Gov. O'Neill Confident His Record Is OK

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill told a gathering in his hometown he is confident the people of Ohio will find his record good.

The governor led a large delegation of state Republican officials who kicked off their drive for re-election. Thursday night's meeting was the first of five planned in various cities in the next few weeks.

O'Neill, seeking his second term, said his administration has given the people the kind of efficient, economical and progressive government they are entitled to have. However, he continued:

"I have not been able . . . to accomplish everything I wanted to accomplish. I do not pretend now to have solved every governmental problem. But I have fulfilled or am fulfilling every major promise that I made."

O'Neill listed these as the major accomplishments of his administration:

- "We have launched the greatest highway construction program in the history of this great state."
- "My administration has under way a building program at the state's hospitals, penal and correctional institutions and state-supported universities that will establish a new all-time record."
- "There have been no scandals in my administration, no apologies have been necessary because of corruption within nor corrupt influences from without. We have successfully used every means at our command to stamp out syndicated, commercialized gambling. Big-time gambling operations have been smashed in every attempt made so far in Ohio."
- "Taxes have not been increased. The state government is living within its income despite a decline in revenues. We have economized and saved money by installing business methods in many departments. We have installed new, money-saving purchasing methods. "These are the major accomplishments of the past 15 months. We are proud of them. The record speaks for itself. We are willing—and happy—to run for re-election on that record."
- On the subject of education, O'Neill said he plans to establish a "new principle in education where every student will have the right to education beyond the high school if the student is willing to work and has the ability."
- Nearly all Republican state officials were at the meeting as well as several Ohio Supreme Court judges and most of the governor's cabinet.
- The rally, held in the gymnasium at Marietta College, was reported to be the largest of its kind in this southeastern Ohio town's history. Some 1,475 persons were present.

and blasted away for an hour at Eisenhower's proposals.

There were even some untypically barbed references to the President — listing aspects of the present defense arrangements now criticized by Eisenhower but which Vinson said Eisenhower himself had instituted or recommended in earlier years.

When Vinson finished, Republicans as well as Democrats stood and applauded him. And not a word was said in rebuttal to his speech.

This doesn't mean, of course, he has won the fight. But it does say something about the respect and influence the crochety, tough-fisted chairman of the Armed Services Committee commands in the House.

A city-bred tourist passing Vinson in a Capital corridor would notice his slight, cane-flourishing strut, the steel-rimmed glasses halfway down a big nose, obscuring a pair of remarkably keen blue eyes.

The city tourist might snicker at this exterior. Not so Vinson's colleagues, nor the top brass of the services, those who testify at Vinson's committee hearings. They have had a chance to see what's inside.

It may or may not be true that Vinson once dismissed the possibility he might become secretary of defense by saying he preferred to run the Pentagon from Capitol Hill.

It is true that practically no legislation affecting the services passes without his approval. The reason may be that Vinson usually sees eye to eye with the individual military services, especially the Navy. But another reason may be that from years of dealing with him, the services have learned what they can expect to have enacted and what they needn't waste time trying for.

Vinson, a widower, was born in Milledgeville, Ga., Nov. 18, 1883. Elected to Congress first in 1914 and regularly re-elected there after, he served 15 years as chairman of the old Naval Affairs Committee. When the Defense Department was established, and the Military and Naval Affairs committees were merged, Vinson took over as chairman of the combined group.

Fayette County Shows Gain In Sales Tax

Fayette County sales tax collections for the week ending April 5 totaled $8,335 — a sharp gain over the $6,676 reported for the same week last year.

Three other area counties — Greene, Madison and Pickaway — showed gains over last year for the six-day period. Only Madison has a year-to-date increase over last year.

The April 5 total brings Fayette County collections since July 1, 1957, to $336,296 as compared with $338,881 for the comparable period last year.

Collections in Ohio for the single week were 1.48 per cent ahead of last year, while the cumulative total is running $6,108,706 below last year.

Collections in other area counties for the week ending April 5 and for the fiscal year to-date are as follows (last year's figures in parentheses):

Clinton $7,932 ($9,144), $389,858 ($416,221); Greene $29,815 ($22,759), $771,883 ($842,121); Highland $7,939 ($8,331), $302,433 ($308,520); Madison $9,831 ($5,097), $327,770 ($323,583); Pickaway $7,774 ($6,967), $293,415 ($299,834); Ross $16,294 ($17,280); $637,281 ($661,116).

Answer Filed In Haines Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Atty. Gen. William Saxbe Friday filed an answer to a lawsuit seeking to put the state mental health director back on the state payroll.

Saxbe said he was trying to help along a quick Ohio Supreme Court decision on the question of whether Dr. Robert A. Haines is entitled to his post.

The answer, a legal formality which did not present arguments in the case, was filed in behalf of state Auditor James R. Rhodes. Rhodes cut Dr. Haines off the payroll after Saxbe held in a formal opinion that Dr. Haines was not properly appointed by Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Rhodes' answer denied the contention of Dr. Haines' suit that the director of the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction held authority to pay Dr. Haines salary. Saxbe based his opinion on the fact that, although a vacancy existed during the time the 1957 Legislature was in session, O'Neill waited until after the session was adjourned before making the appointment.

Such appointments are subject to confirmation by the state Senate.

In a statement issued as he filed the answer, Saxbe explained his position this way:

"The issues involved in this case are deeper than the particular instances in this one case. I do not question the fitness of Dr. Haines to hold the office, nor do I criticize the governor's action in making the delayed appointment."

"My opinion, which gave rise to the court action however was necessarily based upon law and not personal preferences, or political consideration."

2 Men 'Guilty' In Theft-Slaying

CANTON (AP)—A jury Friday convicted two Cleveland area men of first-degree murder in the burglary-slaying of Eldon Shoup, 25, last Feb. 7 in Alliance.
The jury recommended mercy for the two defendants, Alfred Calabrese, 37, of Cleveland, and Paul Perotti, 32, of Chardon. The mercy recommendation saved the pair from the electric chair, but made a life sentence mandatory.
Paul F. Carpenter, who has admitted shooting Shoup, testified that Calabrese and Perotti had accompanied him and Arthur La Riche, 39, of Elyria, in a burglary of the Frank Wells' home. Shoup was shot when he surprised the burglars.

Orioles Pile Up Early Edge in American Loop

Victory Stockpile Could Pay Off When Fall Drive Develops

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Manager Paul Richards may have said a first division finish for Baltimore was only a possibility before the American League race started, but at the moment he's busy stockpiling early victories that could provide the payoff for the Orioles in August and September.

Richards, the only unbeaten skipper left in the AL, isn't missing any bats to get victories Thursday night, despite a 3-0 lead, he pulled rookie Milt Pappas in the fourth inning, sent veteran Jack Harshman to the mound and came off with a 4-0 win.

The New York Yankees joined Detroit and Kansas City in second with a 3-1 victory at Boston while the Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians salvaged the final games of their three-day series with the Tigers and Athletics.

Early Wynn gained his 236th major league victory, with Gerry Staley's relief help as the White Sox defeated Detroit 4-3. Rookie Jim (Mudcat) Grant went all the way for his first victory as the Indians clipped the A's 3-2.

Richards, a crafty ex-catcher who knows his pitchers, saw Pappas give up only two singles in the first three innings. But when the 18-year-old right-hander let a wild pitch slip between two walks with one out in the fourth, Richards hustled Harshman in.

Gus Triandos and Brooks Robinson homered for the Orioles, who tagged loser Chuck Stobbs and two relievers for 10 hits.

Johnny Kucks spaced seven hits for his first complete game since last June for the Yankees, and didn't lose his shutout bid until Jackie Jensen's third homer in the ninth. He got pinch hitter Ted Williams, making his first appearance after a bout with food poisoning, on a grounder in the eighth. Pete Runnels led the Sox with 4-for-4.

Tom Brewer gave up the telling run on Mickey Mantle's first hit of the year—a solid, fifth-inning homer.

Wynn gave up nine of the Tigers' 11 hits before Staley pulled him out of two-on, two-out trouble in the seventh.

Mickey Vernon's pinch double with two out in the ninth scored a pair and brought the Indians from behind against Duke Maas. Bob Cerv homered.

Mathews Starting At Full Speed

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Eddie Mathews of the Milwaukee Braves credits weight control and exercise with the fastest start of his seven-year major league career.

The wonderfully coordinated third baseman clubbed two homers (his third and fourth in two games) and drove in five runs Thursday in the Braves' 6-1 decision over Pittsburgh.

In 1953, the year Mathews hit 47 home runs and was frequently compared with Babe Ruth, he didn't connect with No. 4 until his seventh game on April 23. Last year it was May 10.

Canadiens Chalk Up Hockey Series Lead

MONTREAL (AP)—Maurice Richard rifled in an overtime goal Tuesday night to give the Montreal Canadiens a 3-2 win over the Boston Bruins and the same 3-2 margin in the Stanley Cup final.

The big goal that once again gave Montreal the edge in the best-of-7 series marked the sixth time Richard has broken up overtime games in his 13 appearances in post-season play.

Redlegs Set For Joust With Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Cincinnati Redlegs finally will get around to playing their second game of the season today but they still don't think their opener last Tuesday against Philadelphia should be charged as a defeat.

National League President Warren Giles Thursday disallowed the Cincinnati protest of the opening 5-4 defeat by the Phils. But Manager Gabe Paul promptly said the Redlegs would ask for a reconsideration of the case and a hearing, if possible.

The protest was based on a claim by Cincinnati that there was interference by a fan with a ball hit by Granny Hamner which scored Richie Ashburn with the tying run. Ashburn scored from first and the Redlegs claimed he should have been halted at third base.

Giles ruled that it was up to the umpire's judgement to determine how far the runner would have gone even if the ball had not been touched.

The Redlegs claim another rule calls for the ball to be declared dead when there is interference.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts planned to start ex-Pirate Bob Purkey against Pittsburgh in the "Bucs" home opener today. Purkey was due to be opposed by Ronnie Kline who seldom has been much of a puzzle to the Redlegs.

Trio Paces Track Team In Third Win

Rainey Foster, Phil Johnson and Jim Wilson led the Washington High School Lions again as they took their third straight track meet, 67-51 from the Hillsboro team at Gardner Park Thursday afternoon.

Foster led the squad with first places in the 100-yd. dash, the 220-yd. dash and the broad jump. Wilson was first in the discus and the half mile, and Johnson scored first on the 440-yd. dash.

Duane Callender, new on the Lion track squad, took first place in the mile run on his first outing. Larry Stribling won the Lions a tie in the long hurdles.

The Lions took the mile relay by default after the Hillsboro squad failed to field a team. Hillsboro took the half mile after the Lions were disqualified when one of their boys ran out too soon.

The Lions now have four victories in three meets to their credit. Frankfort, Wilmington and Little Miami all have fallen to the Lion attack over the weeks, along with Hillsboro.

Circleville and London meet here next Monday to vie in a meet rescheduled from April 10.

Musial Chalks New Record

But 'The Man' Fails To Win Card Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Stan (The Man) Musial has yet another National League record in the bag today, but the St. Louis Cardinals are still looking for that first victory in what some folks picked to be their pennant year.

Musial, at 37 closing in on a cluster of standout hitting records, slammed past Mel Ott's league record for total bases with a home run and a single Thursday night, but it wasn't enough to ward off a 4-3 defeat by the Chicago Cubs.

Musial has collected 5,046 total bases on 2,960 hits while padding his NL record of long hits to 1,157 with his 382nd home run. Ott totaled 5,041 bases in his 22 seasons. Musial, in his 17th season, now ranks No. 5 among the major league total-bases leaders, topped by Ty Cobb's 5,863.

While the Cubs stayed unbeaten, the defending champion Milwaukee Braves whipped Pittsburgh 6-1. Ed Mathews again belted a pair of homers.

San Francisco clobbered Don Newcombe early and defeated Los Angeles 7-4 in the only other NL game scheduled.

Dale Long's sacrifice fly scored the Cubs' deciding run in the eighth. Rookie Tony Taylor lined a two-run single and John Gory rapped a homer for a quick 3-0 lead against Loner Lindy McDaniel.

Mathews, who led the league with 47 home runs in 1953 and hit 32 last season, rapped Loner Vern Law for a two-out, three-run homer in the fifth, breaking a 1-1 tie, and then slugged No. 4 in the seventh off rookie Bennie Daniels.

Winner Curt Barclay and Harvey Grissom shut out the Dodgers on three hits over the last 5-1-3 innings in relief of Johnny Antonelli, who blew a 3-0 lead by giving up five hits and six walks.

Jeff Takes Third Loss From Xenia

Loose, free - hitting, high-scoring baseball cost the Jeffersonville Tigers their third loss o. the spring season Thursday as they bowed 12-11 to Class AA Xenia Central on the Jeffersonville diamond.

There were 13 errors in the ball game. As freely as both teams were playing, they might as well have been under water. The high scores juggled back and forth, and it was only after the final out that Xenia could be sure of a clean victory.

Jeff jumped off to a 2-0 lead that was slashed in the second inning when Xenia boiled through for nine runs. Jeff added three in the bottom of the second and one in the fourth, but it wasn't until the sixth that a four-run barrage sent the Tigers out in front again.

The barrage, which left the Tigers out in front, 10-9, was superseded in the top of the seventh by a three-run Xenia blast that proved to be the final blow. Jeff had one run in the bottom of the seventh, but then folded with a man on base.

Ron Wilt led the Jeff attack with three runs and three hits. Jim Cook, the pitcher, also had three runs while Dave Groves had two. Wilt's hits included a single, a double and a triple.

The Buccaneers made only three hits during their nine-run inning, doing most of their heavy scoring on five costly errors.

Big Axe to Race At Maywood Park

Bob and Ervin Miller left here about 9 a. m. today for Chicago with their fingers crossed, hoping to see his 5-year-old trotter, Big Axe, win his third race of the season at Maywood Park tonight.

Big Axe, by Axomite out of Hillcrest Annie, won both of his first two starts this year, the first in 2:02 and the second Tuesday night in 2:06.4, with Paul Norris at the reins.

Both of those races were $1,000 feature events, but tonight he will tangle with some of the best in the area in a $5,000 stakes event for 17 class trotters.

The Miller brothers said, as they headed west, "we're hoping to see him win his third straight, but we're not really counting on it. . . it'll take a lot of luck if he does."

Last year, racing almost the entire season at the big tracks in the Detroit area, Big Axe won 11 races, was second in 12 and third in one of his 32 starts.

The late Homer Miller, a county commissioner for many years, bought Big Axe as a 4-year-old at Eddie Cobb's sale here in the fall of 1956. Homer died in February of 1957 without ever seeing his horse race.

Big Axe was raced by Norris last year along with G. Bakers stable and was trained here last winter by him.

Weaver, Collins Lead Derby Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bert Weaver's easy swing around Seneca golf course led him to forecast today that a 267-17 under par would be needed to win the Kentucky Derby Open Tourney.

Weaver, from Beaumont, Tex., and Bill Collins of Grossingers, N. Y., set the pattern with 65s, good for a one-stroke lead over veteran Chick Harbert, Northville, Mich.

Another stroke behind were Dow Finsterwald, Athens, Ohio; Tommy Bolt, Chattanooga, Tenn.; and Tony Lema, Napa, Calif.

New Law Due To Aid Sports

Antitrust Exemption For Some Pros Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Judiciary Committee has approved legislation to exempt from antitrust laws such practices by professional sports teams as are "reasonably necessary" to keep them competitive.

The committee passed out the bill to the full house for later action.

The vote was reportedly divided. Inclusion of the "reasonably necessary" provision had brought earlier protests from some sports figures and, in Congress, chiefly from Rep. Keating of New York, the committee's senior Republican.

Keating favored a flat exemption of such practices as the contract reserve clause in baseball, football, basketball and hockey.

The clause ties a player to the club which first signs him.

The committee also voted to exempt contracts regulating television and other broadcasting rights.

Its Antitrust subcommittee which conducted extensive hearings on sports operations last year, had not mentioned TV or radio in a bill handed to the full Judiciary Committee.

The addition, if finally enacted into law, presumably would allow organized baseball to come to an agreement to restrict the telecast of major league games.

The minor leagues have complained that unlimited telecasts hurt their gate receipts by keeping fans in front of home screens.

Major leagues attorneys said the Justice Department has cautioned that any restrictive agreement probably would violate present antitrust statutes.

The Supreme Court has declared baseball is now exempt from antitrust regulation. But in ruling last year that pro football is covered, the court indicated any subsequent decisions, if called for, would wipe out the exempted status for any team sport.

57 IL Also-Rans Set Pace in 1958

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The four second division clubs of the International League at the end of last season have so far shown a reversal of form over their 1957 finish. For the second straight day Thursday they pinned back the ears of their 1957 first division opponents.

The Havana Sugar Kings, given a lift when pinch swinger Luis Alvarez socked a two-run homer in the eighth frame, beat the Buffalo Bisons 3-2 in 12 innings.

In other games, the Columbus Jets defeated the defending champion Toronto Maple Leafs 6-3, the Montreal Royals again blasted Richmond Virginian pitching to the tune of a 9-2 decision and the Rochester Red Wings edged the Miami Marlins 3-2.

Sumatra in the Indonesian archipelago is larger than California and longer than the distance from Chicago to New York, says the National Geographic Society.

By JACK AYER

BASKETBALL IN NUMBERS

Herb Russell, or Jack O'Rourke or Ron Coffman or someone who keeps track of Washington High School basketball has a passion for statistics. Such is the testimony of a document supplied us lately which goes in to almost grim detail recording the fate of the Lions in terms of numbers. All the details of field goal and foul shot shooting are there, so an observer can get at least a pretty good idea of who's doing what for the high school squad.

THE MOST startling revelation in the summary is the fact that Larry Milstead, who left the squad in mid-season, nonetheless led Lion scoring with 265 points. Tom Swaim, who played the whole route, had 264. One has to stop and think in order to realize that Milstead, who was used almost exclusively on offense, got more chances to shoot in his 11 games than Swaim did in his 18.

Swaim's field goal percentage was higher -- led the squad, in fact. He made 92 out of 188 attempted field goals for a percentage of 48, a clean cut above Milstead's 43. Also edging above Milstead was Phil Johnson's 43.4 percent, achieved on a 33-out-of-76 field goal route.

Four Injured In Collision

Two Cars Wrecked And One Driver Cited

Four persons were injured and one driver was arrested in a two-car collision at 10:15 a. m. Friday at the intersection of Temple and Lewis Sts.

Investigating police officers said that the driver of one of the autos, Joann O. George, 28, Hilliards, went through a stop sign prior to the accident. She was cited.

The four injured, all passengers in the George car and all from the Columbus area, are: Judy Hoffman, 15; Louise Foster, 41; Clarissa Bam, 54; and Joann O. George.

All four were taken to Memorial Hospital in police cruiser. Attaches at the hospital said about noon Friday that it was probable all four people would be released after treatment.

Ralph T. Ladd, 52, Devalon Rd., was the driver of the other car involved in the collision. His car was a total wreck, but he apparently was uninjured.

The George car, in which the injured persons were riding, sustained extensive right side damage.

JUST PRIOR to the collision, according to reports, Ladd's car was approaching the Temple-Lewis St. intersection, going south. Lewis St., a state highway, is the through street at the intersection. The George car moved west into the intersection past a flashing stop sign, it was reported, by investigating police.

Washington C. H. Chief of Police D. Vaiden Long commented that this is the first serious accident at the Temple-Lewis St. intersection since the city installed a flashing stop sign there a year ago. He added that it is ironic to find that there has been an accident at what he termed "about the best-marked street intersection in the city."

Baseball Topic At Good Hope Lions Meeting

GOOD HOPE — Baseball occupied the business session of the Good Hope Lions club held following dinner in the Wayne Township Hall Thursday night.

Members heard reports on the Lion-sponsored Babe Ruth League team, and the Little League team which the club also sponsors. There are 14 boys on this year's Babe Ruth League squad thus far, Russell Hatfield, chairman of the Babe Ruth program, told the group. The Good Hope squad will use the newly-acquired Babe Ruth Field on the edge of Washington C. H. for some of its home games, Hatfield said.

New uniforms have been obtained for the Little League squad, Earl Rea reported. The team plays in a league, formed last year, which also includes Little League teams from Bloomingburg and New Holland.

Robert Allen, plant supervisor for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. here, explained the proposed telephone rate increase during the evening's program session. Allen showed two films of telephone maintenance work.

Next meeting will be May 17. Paul Pope is president of the club.

Climb Up High Bridge Embarrassing to Cops

NEW YORK — Police converged on Manhattan bridge Thursday and one of them climbed toward a man perched 40 feet up on a girder. The cop persuaded him to come down.

"Why did you do it?" the cops asked Edward J. Haggerty, 50. "Because it's my job," he snapped. "I'm an inspector and I have to look over the steel work every Thursday."

So the police went away and Haggerty climbed back up.

Sign Painter's Tools Left on Temple St. Lawn

There should be a sign painter in the Washington C. H. area without the tools of his trade.

Police got a call from 514 E. Temple St. at 11:30 a. m. Thursday telling them that someone left a cap and sign painter's box on the front lawn.

The equipment was being held for its owner early Friday morning at the police station.

City Teachers To Hunt Ideas

Visits To Be Made To Other Schools

Washington C. H. schools will be closed all day next Wednesday while the teachers—all 88 of them in the five elementary and one high school—go out in search of new ideas that may be used in making the schools here better.

The teachers will go to other schools as observers to get new ideas along such lines as methods or techniques for teaching, method for handling certain routine duties, subjects that might be included in the curriculum, ways for correlating subject matter and the use of teaching aids.

Most of the teachers already have selected the schools they will visit; some are in cities as Cincinnati and its suburbs and Columbus, while others are in smaller cities comparable in size of Washington C. H. Many of schools to be visited are relatively new.

The teachers are to report their definite plans to the principals of their schools Monday.

INDICATIONS are that most of them will make their visits in groups, with the teachers separating when they arrive to observe the grades they teach.

In outlining the plan for "idea day," Superintendent W. A. Smith told the teachers that "at least one new idea is expected from each teacher"—that would produce 88 new ideas for consideration for the school here.

Each teacher is to write a brief report on his, or her, visit, explaining the "new idea" picked up at another school that might be useful here. These reports are to be submitted to the principals by Friday.

Incidentally, the 2,300 city school students will have a day of vacation.

After 32 Years, She Finds What She Wants

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — In 1926 Mrs. Grace Faulkner ordered a pattern through the Louisville Courier-Journal. She got a card back saying her pattern wasn't in stock. It told her to pick another and she'd get it free.

Today's Courier-Journal announced Mrs. Faulkner finally found the pattern she liked. It's been sent to her.

Mainly About People

Loren Yoho Sr. has accepted a position with the Cleveland State Hospital as food service supervisor.

Harry Engle, Snowhill Rd., who entered White Cross Hospital, Columbus, Monday, underwent surgery Wednesday and is in "fair" condition.

County Agent W. W. Montgomery returned Thursday evening from Cleveland where he had spent the past four days on a market study program at the Cleveland Union Stockyards and with the Swift and Co. Packing Plant.

Mike Domenico, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Domenico of 609 Park Dr., is reported improving in Children's Hospital, Columbus, where he has been a medical patient since Tuesday. His condition is not yet good and he is still in isolation with a blood infection.

Mrs. Wilbur Roberts, 131 Ohio Ave., has been removed from Fayette Memorial Hospital to Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, for an indefinite stay. She had been a patient in Fayette Memorial two weeks. Her room number at Mt. Carmel is 344.

Television Contest

Suspected To Be Hoax

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — "What's your name?" the man asked. Mrs. Lily Underwood told him. "That's right," he announced, and told her she had won a television set.

The man, who knocked on Mrs. Underwood's door, said she'd have to pay $5.33 tax on the set. She said the set hadn't arrived. Police said it probably won't. They're looking for the man.

Daniel Webster's birthplace was Franklin, N. H.

Girl on Bike Hit by Car on Street Here

A 13-year-old girl bicycle rider was struck by a car late Thursday afternoon, but apparently was not seriously hurt and a 5-year-old girl was cut over the left eye in a fender-bending accident at 9 p. m. in Washington C. H.

County traffic produced one accident during the same period when a car left the road as it rounded a curve just north of Good Hope.

Damage to the cars was minor. Burris W. Henry 42, of 205 Ohio Ave., was reportedly going east on Gregg St. at the intersection of Forest St., when a bicycle ridden by Naomi Carol Holloway, 13, of 325 Delaware St., daughter of State Highway Patrolman Dwight Holloway, reportedly darted in front of his car. Henry told police he had no time to stop before his car hit her. He was not held.

Two motorists were attempting to make turns at the junction of W. Court St. and Circle Ave. at 9 p. m. Thursday, when their cars collided.

Becky Yahn, 5, of 734 High St., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Yahn, suffered a cut over her left eye in the accident and was taken to Fayette Memorial Hospital, where she was treated and released.

Katharine Bailey, 55, of 537 Harrison St., was the driver of the car in which Becky was a passenger when it collided with the one driven by William Lloyd Copeland, 24, of 1152 E. Paint St., police reported.

Fayette County Sheriff's deputies said that a car went into the ditch while rounding a curve on Route 753, a fourth of a mile north of Good Hope at 7:20 p. m., Thursday.

Robert Leo Jordan, 20, of 107 Ohio Ave., driver of the car, told the deputies, his left front tire blew out, causing the car to leave the roadway.

Armco and National Supply Co. Merger Gets Stockholder OK

MIDDLETOWN — The merger of Armco Steel Corp., seventh largest U. S. steel producer, and the National Supply Company world's largest manufacturer of oil field equipment, was approved Thursday by Armco stockholders at their annual meeting here.

National Supply stockholders voted their sanction of the merger at their annual meeting held Wednesday in Pittsburgh.

Out of 12,264,415 shares, Armco stockholders voted 9,698,558 shares, or 79 per cent, in favor of the merger, 64,112 shares, or 1 of one per cent, were voted against the merger. The vote of National Supply stockholders was 71 per cent for the merger and 3 per cent against.

Charles R. Hook, Armco chairman, told the stockholders that it is planned to make the merger effective on April 30. Armco will operate the business of National Supply under the same name as a subsidiary of Armco, he said. He added that no changes in National Supply personnel or policies are contemplated.

ARMCO has over 30,000 employees and had 1957 sales of $777 million. National Supply has 8,000 employees and its 1957 sales totaled $300 million.

National Supply stockholders will receive 85-100 of a share of Armco common stock for each share of National Supply stock they own. The 12,000 National Supply stockholders will become owners of approximately 2,501,200 shares of Armco stock. The total number of shares of Armco stock then outstanding will be approximately 14,766,400.

R. L. Gray, Armco president, said that the corporate alliance will bring together two companies whose activities complement one another well.

"Armco does not now manufacture oil country goods," he said, "and National Supply is an important user of steel without any significant steelmaking capacity of its own."

Gray told the stockholders that during the first quarter Armco sales were approximately $143,000,000, compared to $198,205,419 for the first quarter of 1957.

"While final figures are not yet available, we estimate that earnings for the first quarter of 1958 will be something over $9,000,000 which is approximately equal to the dividend disbursement of 75 cents per share in the first quarter. This compares to earnings in the first quarter of 1957 of $15,487,752 or $1.29 per share on the smaller number of shares then outstanding," he stated.

Looking ahead, Gray said that Armco does not expect a great deal of improvement in the current level of steel operations until fall.

"By that time the volume of public construction will have increased, the production of 1959 automobiles will be underway, and defense spending will have been stepped up. All of these factors should increase the demand for steel," he said.

In manufacturing industries, the British worker puts in a longer week than the Canadian, American or West German.

Auto Damaged In New Holland

NEW HOLLAND — A Cincinnati man's auto was badly damaged about 3 p. m. Thursday on Main St. here when it was hit in the side by a truck from Washington C. H.

Most of the right side was ripped off a car driven by Joseph Scheft, 40, of Cincinnati. Scheft was not injured.

Driver of the truck, Oscar E. Bonnell, 71, of 411 E. Market St., told State Highway Patrolman R. R. Shelton he pulled from a curb and did not see the Scheft auto coming from behind.

"50¢ a tablet can be cheap!"

No one likes to pay 50¢ for a single tablet—including us. Nevertheless, some of the newer drugs cost that much. They seem expensive—yes, only seem. Consider this: Pneumonia used to mean 4 to 6 bedridden weeks. Loss of pay. Often hospitalization. Often death. Now, a few dollars' worth of one antibiotic will generally cure pneumonia in days. And this is only one example... there are many others. When you consider what a few 50c pills will do for you, they seem downright cheap.
